

Week-Long Luxury Stay at Villa Saletta, Tuscany

Prize value: c. €16,000

Minimum bid required: €15,000

Villa Saletta is a 1,760-acre private estate nestled amidst the rolling hills of Tuscany, Italy. Once the home of the Riccardi family, bankers to the Medici, the estate has a remarkable history that spans centuries. The current owners have restored three of the existing farmhouses and have transformed them into luxury villas, each featuring state-of-the-art modern amenities and elegant Tuscan design throughout.

Villa Saletta's modern boutique winery produces a small selection of top quality Tuscan wines. Each of the vineyards has its own specific soil and climate, and the estate's approach is focused on preserving these intrinsic characteristics in the wines.

The estate is located only 35 minutes from Pisa's international airport and within the 'Golden Triangle' of Pisa, Florence and Siena.

- Prize includes: One week's stay (Saturday through Saturday) at Villa Saletta in Tuscany, Italy. Choice of stay at one of three villas, sleeping between 6-14 people. A winery tour and tasting with Villa Saletta's winemaking experts. A gourmet welcome hamper with a selection of products made on the estate (three bottles of Villa Saletta wine signed by the winemaker, olive oil and honey) and local artisanal products. Other amenities include: outdoor pool, barbecue, patio, linens and towels, daily housekeeping Monday through Friday, Wi-Fi.
- Prize does not include: Flights, airport transfers, excursions and experiences (although can all be arranged with the estate's hospitality team), heating of outdoor pool (surcharge applies if heating requested)
- Timeframe for redeeming: subject to availability and season. Must be taken within one (1) year
